MON.ITOR.US WEEKLY Issue #4

New forum thread is available now on <http://forum.mon.itor.us> named ConsultUs. This thread is dedicated to discuss systems management, performance tuning, site optimization issues. Our team will be happy to share our expertise with the mon.itor.us community. You are welcome to submit your problems and issues, and we will try to solve them.

We designed MON.ITOR.US to provide our users with the best monitoring experience and built a community around it. We need your participation to deliver that vision:

If you are happy with the service please submit a testimonial using a Testimonial link in the application menu. If you have a suggestion or need help please use Feedback link or use our forums. If you want to share your experience with your contacts please use Recommend Friend link. Please bookmark us on social bookmarking sites like del.icio.us and others, as well as digging and posting articles in blogs.

We are committed to providing the best monitoring experience for free. We are financing the free service via advertisements and our premium service. The more visitors we get on our site the more we can invest for our user satisfaction.
